

would stay the same. You're just raising it from 1,000 to 5,000.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: That's correct.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yeah, okay, thank you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. Senator Beutler, on the bill.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Question, Senator, if I may. Does this...does this preclude then the necessity of public bids and...or sale at auction, which I think was...

SENATOR BEUTLER: I'm trying to get a picture of what 503.01 is about. This is the sale of smaller properties, whereas otherwise if you had larger ones you'd be required to sell by auction or by bid? Is that where we are?

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Yeah, general practice is usually the small communities will have auctions for miscellaneous property that they might have and will usually auction it off, but that would need to be determined by the village board as to what procedure that they would want to use as far as the sale of the property.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so the effect of the bill, at least insofar as we're dealing with Section 1, is to allow a direct private sale, for one thing, and to increase and to include real property, for a second thing, and to increase the amount for both real and personal property to $5,000. Is that a fair summary?

SENATOR MAURSTAD: That's correct.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, thank you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Any other discussion on the advancement of the bill? Seeing none, Senator Maurstad, to close. He waives closing. The question is advancement of
